Notice of Motion No: 02/09 – Councillor Michael Moloney

“That, we the members, of Laois County Council call on the Government to change the legislation so as to restrict any sitting member of either houses of the Oireachtas from receiving a pension relating to a previous position held in the Oireachtas or Government, that is while still a TD or Senator”

Notice of Motion No: 03/09 – Councillor Michael Moloney

“In light of the ever increasing numbers of people loosing their jobs and aware of the importance of The St. Vincent De Paul Society in these times, that we the Members of Laois County Council forgo our conferences expenses for the remainder of this year and in December’s estimates the Members allocate these monies to the St. Vincent De Paul Society across the County to enable them to help the needy especially at Christmas”

Notice of Motion No: 04/09 – Councillor Michael Moloney

“That the Government as a matter of policy set up a register in all Department of Enterprise, Trade & Employment, of all Boards of State and Semi-State Bodies whereby individuals can submit their C.V.s for consideration for appointment to these same Boards when vacancies arise”

Notice of Motion No: 05/09 – Councillor Tom Jacob

“That this Council calls on the Government to expand the F.A.S. scheme in Portlaoise to clean the rivers and remove all the debris that is impeding the natural flow of water and prevent flooding”
